Statement from Kendall Dilling, President, Pathways Alliance, in response to the delay of U.S. tariffs on Canadian exports

"We are pleased to learn of the month's delay of tariffs on Canadian exports to the U.S. Long-standing trade across all sectors has made both our countries stronger. We are hopeful this additional time will allow for Canada and the United States to work together and reach a solution. It's important to advance our shared interests for energy security and affordability through a positive trade relationship."
